WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

As high pressure strengthens over the west, hot weather will continue to impact northwest California. A cooling trend will begin by Friday with rain possible over the weekend.

San Francisco Weather:

Record heat is expected for Wednesday across the San Francisco Bay Area and Central Coast with a heat advisory in effect through 8 pm tonight. Some modest cooling may be seen near the coast Thursday, but still hot inland with highs in the 90s. More noted cooling will begin Friday and then continue through the weekend and into early next week as a dry trough moves into Northern California with a return of onshore winds; although temperatures will only cool back to seasonable norms.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

Sacramento Weather:

Temperatures will be heating up to near-record levels by mid-week as a ridge of high pressure builds over California. Cooler temps expected Friday through the weekend as a trough moves through the Pacific Northwest.

Hanford Weather:

Strong high pressure over Central California will bring a warming trend along with light winds. Well above normal temperatures can be expected through the remainder of the week.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

The high pressure will continue the hot temperatures through Friday for most areas. There will be breezy to gusty winds on Wednesday. The high pressure will weaken over the weekend as a trough approaches the Pacific Northwest along with onshore breezes and cool temperatures closer to normal.

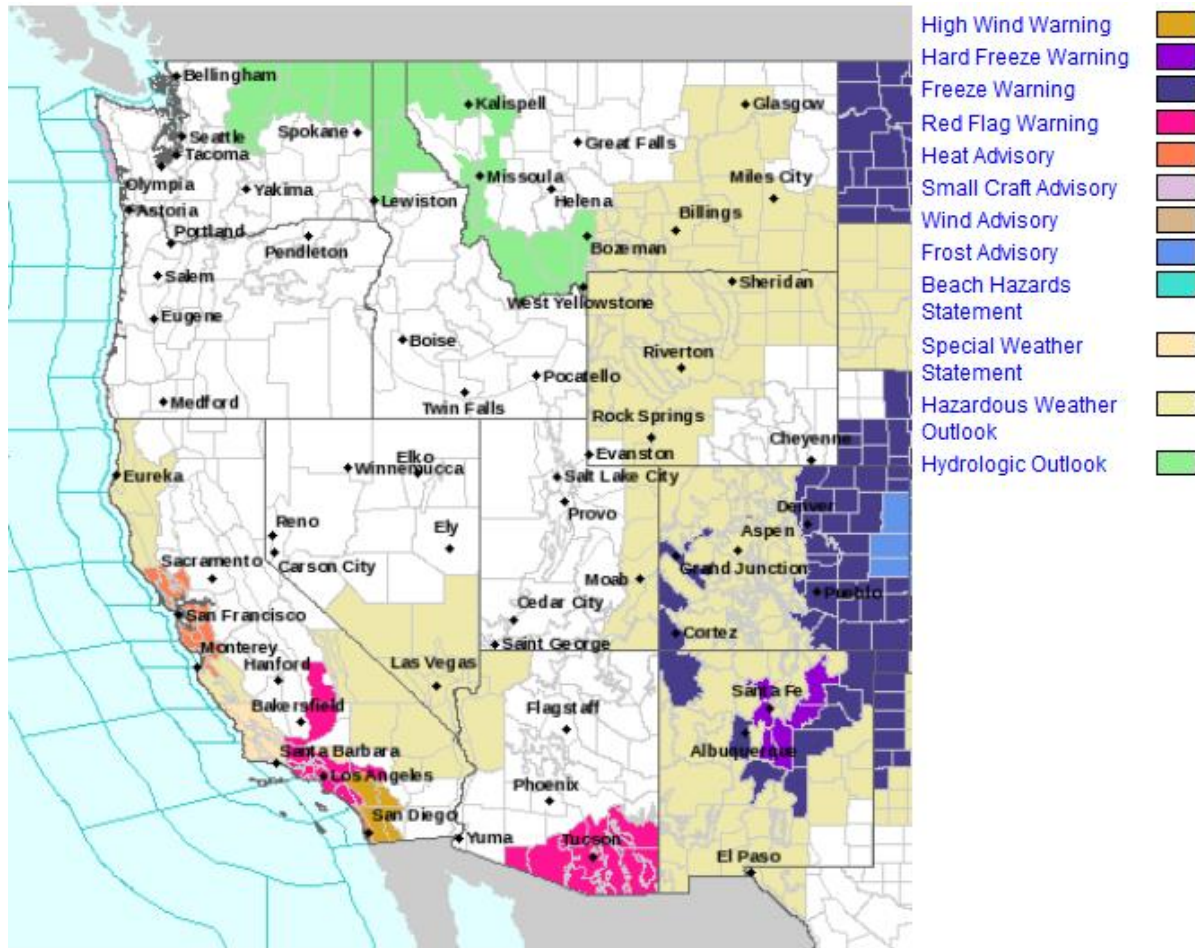

Extreme Southwestern California Including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

High pressure will build over the West Coast through Thursday with very hot and dry conditions prevailing. Strong and gusty Santa Ana winds will continue through today then weaken a bit for Thursday before ending on Friday. A cooling trend will also develop along the coast on Friday then spread across the inland areas this weekend as the ridge gives way to a digging trough. This trough will deepen over the west early next week with the marine layer and onshore flow returning as well as much cooler conditions prevailing across the Southland.

Southeast California Weather:

High pressure will lead to dry conditions and warming temperatures for the rest of the week. The warmest temperatures so far this year are expected Friday and Saturday.

CAL OES DROUGHT ACTIVATIONS

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- The SOC is activated at Level 2 in support of the Drought State of Emergency from 0800-1700 hours daily.
- The Inland REOC is activated at Level 2 from 0800-1700 Monday through Friday or as needed.
- The Southern REOC is activated at Level 1.
- The Santa Barbara County OA EOC is activated at Level 2 to be handled by the duty officer for the purpose of monitoring activities and gaining situational awareness. The operational period is 0800-1700 hours.

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

Situational Summary

On January 17, 2014 Governor Edmund G. Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for drought conditions. The State Operation Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities. The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State over the next few months. Negative economic impacts will also result.

*As our state's rainy season comes to an end, it is highly unlikely that precipitation totals will increase significantly. This winter's below average rain and snowfall worsens conditions in this third straight dry year.

The drought could result in severe impacts to the municipal water supplies, wells, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities for several months. The SOC continues to be activated to monitor the situation statewide, and support regional and local operational areas.

- The Taskforce continues to meet regularly to take actions that conserve water and coordinate state response to the drought.
- The most recent snowpack survey, conducted on April 1, recorded California snowpack at 32% of normal. A more recent update using automated devices shows snowpack at 19% of normal as of April 20.
- DWR has announced that water essential for health and safety will be delivered through the state water project in spite of the zero allocation policy. Deliveries will be boosted if storms produce enough rain and snow to increase reservoir storage and the snow pack.
- Cal OES continues to gather drought-related costs from state agencies and local governments.
